

Table of Contents

GABRIELA ŚWITEK
Introduction / 5

KATARZYNA ADAMSKA
An Apartment as a National Issue: On the Exhibitions of the Polish Applied Art Society at the Zachęta Gallery in 1902 and 1908 / 7

MAREK CZAPELSKI
Towards Socialist Architecture: Architectural Exhibitions
at the Zachęta in the Years 1950–1955 / 31

KAROLINA ZYCHOWICZ
The Exhibition-Organising Activity of the Committee for Cultural Cooperation with Foreign Countries (1950–1956)
Based on the Example of Selected Exhibitions at the Zachęta
Central Bureau of Art Exhibitions / 63

PETRA SKARUPSKY
“The War Brought Us Close and the Peace Will Not Divide Us”:
Exhibitions of Art from Czechoslovakia in Warsaw in the Late 1940s / 95

STANISŁAW WELBEL
Käthe Kollwitz and Otto Nagel: Two Exhibitions of “Progressive Artists” at the Zachęta in the Framework of Cultural Cooperation with the German Democratic Republic / 111

IWONA LUBA
Kobro and Strzemiński: Łódź – Warsaw – Paris (1956–1957) / 137

KONRAD NIEMIRA
Much Ado About Nothing? Political Contexts of the 15 Polish Painters
Exhibition (MoMA, 1961) / 167

WERONIKA KOBYLŃSKA-BUNSCH
The Post-War History of Pictorialism as Exemplified by Exhibitions at the Zachęta and the Kordegarda (1953–1970) / 193

KAMILA LEŚNIAK

The Family of Man in Poland: An Exhibition as a Democratic Space? / 213

KATARZYNA MATUL

The Transition to Art: Poster Exhibitions at the Outset of the Poster's Institutionalisation / 239

ANNA MARIA LEŚNIEWSKA

Exhibitions of Sculpture as a Sign of the Spatial Shift:
From Spring Salon to Sculpture in the Garden / 253

KRZYSZTOF KOŚCIUCZUK

Looking Back at Looking Forward: Art Exhibitions in Poland
for the 1975 AICA Congress / 277

AGATA JAKUBOWSKA

Meetings: Exhibitions of Women's Art Curated by Izabella Gustowska / 291