

Contents

Foreword	7
Introduction	9
Chapter 1. The essence of sustainable management.	13
1. Conditions	13
2. Towards responsibility	20
2.1. Business ethics in the world without borders	21
2.2. Social responsibility	26
3. The essence of sustainable management	27
4. Challenges facing sustainable management	31
Chapter 2. The role and place of marketing in the concept of management of sustainable enterprise	41
1. The prerequisite of responsible marketing is trust-based relationships	42
2. Evolution of marketing towards sustainability	45
3. Ethical aspects of marketing	47
4. Marketing inspired by social responsibility	48
5. Sustainable marketing – a necessity resulting from the development of the global economy	51
6. Towards sustainable marketing	53
7. Development of the theory of sustainable marketing	56
8. Consumption as a challenge for sustainable marketing	58
9. The art of marketing as the art of building a brand that communicates sustainable values	69
9.1. Attributes of a sustainable brand	69
9.2. Brand image	70
9.3. Perceived brand value	71
9.4. Brand awareness	72
9.5. Brand loyalty	74
9.6. Brand communication	76
Chapter 3. Responsible leadership as a prerequisite for implementing sustain- able management	78
1. Features of an outstanding leader	80
2. Social responsibility and ethics of the leader	86
3. Responsibility of the leader in ethical and emotional dimensions	88
Epilogue	91
Bibliography	93