

CONTENTS

Foreword

Mariusz Gwiazda, Alessandro Poggio, and Dagmara Wielgosz-Rondolino 7

Early Byzantine vases carved in Prokonnesian marble from ancient Halasarna (Kos Island, Dodecanese, Greece)

Eirene Poupaki 9

Multiple stonecutters' marks on marble in the Late Antique Mediterranean: Distribution, function, and meaning

Giulia Marsili 31

Corinthian capitals from the Hellespontus

Ayşe Çaylak Türker 55

Liturgical furnishings of the City Basilica at Patara (Lykia): Templon arrangement and its suggested reconstruction

Ceren Demirton 79

Use and aesthetics of Iasian marble in presbyteries of the 6th century

Diego Peirano 105

Between private and public: The use of marble in Late Antique Caesarea Maritima

Rivka Gersht, Peter Gendelman 123

Marmora Bizantina*: A digital corpus of marble finds from the southern Levant

Mariusz Gwiazda 181

Byzantine marble fragments rediscovered in a Tyre cistern

Hany Kahwagi-Janho 197

Marble as votive offering? Social agency in the post-Classical Levant

Basema Hamarneh 225

Methods of quantitative and qualitative analyses of ancient marble finds assemblages. The cases of early Byzantine Hawara, Porphyreon, and Philoxenite

Mariusz Gwiazda 243