

Table of contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| List of abbreviations | 7 |
| Introduction | 9 |
| Chapter 1 | |
| The legal status of human life in prenatal stages of development | 19 |
| 1.1. The European Convention on Human Rights and the beginnings of the protection of human life | 21 |
| 1.2. The status of the human embryo in the Council of Europe's soft law | 48 |
| 1.3. Anthropology of the Convention on Human Rights and Biomedicine | 68 |
| Chapter 2 | |
| Assisted reproductive technologies | 79 |
| 2.1. The essence & types of ART | 80 |
| 2.2. The ethical and legal controversy surrounding IVF | 84 |
| 2.3. In vitro fertilisation in the Council of Europe's legal regulations | 107 |
| 2.4. ART in the case-law of the European Court of Human Rights | 127 |
| Chapter 3 | |
| Prenatal diagnosis & preimplantation genetic diagnosis | 155 |
| 3.1. Methods of PND and PGD | 157 |
| 3.2. Ethical & legal dilemmas linked to PND and PNG | 162 |
| 3.3. PND and PGD in the Council of Europe's recommended standards | 181 |
| 3.4. PND and PGD in the Council of Europe's convention standards | 205 |

Chapter 4

| | |
|--|-----|
| Cloning | 223 |
| 4.1. Biological aspects of cloning | 225 |
| 4.2. Ethics and the cloning of human beings | 230 |
| 4.3. The Council of Europe's bioethical standards on cloning | 244 |

Epilogue

| | |
|---|-----|
| The biogenetical revolution of the Council of Europe | 261 |
| 1. The temple rebuilt | 262 |
| 2. Dignity as the basis of biogenetical regulations | 272 |
| 3. The identity of the human being – biological reductionism or a new basis for metaphysics? | 287 |
| Works cited | 297 |
| Legal acts | 297 |
| Table of cases | 301 |
| References | 302 |