

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Aleksander Gubrynowicz – From the sectoral angle to the general rules or how the Convention on International Liability for Damages Caused by Space Objects influenced the development of the International Law of State Responsibility and Liability?	7
Lukasz Kulaga – Implementation of soft law relating to outer space into domestic law	26
Katarzyna Myszona-Kostrzewa – Some legal aspects of international liability for damage caused by malfunctioning of satellite navigation systems	38
Michał Pietkiewicz – The “Liability Convention” in a clash with practice – example of the “Kosmos 954” Satellite	54
Zuzanna Kulińska-Kępa – The Convention on International Liability for Damage Caused by Space Objects from the human rights perspective – selected aspects	70
Katarzyna Malinowska – Protection of the space environment and sustainable development as a paradigm for the development of space legislation	87
Dagmara Kuźniar – The concept of long term sustainability of outer space activities and the international responsibility of states for space activities	112
Małgorzata Polkowska – International security and outer space – today’s law challenges	126
Anna Magdalena Kosińska – Why was it necessary to appoint a decentralized agency for coherent and safe management of the EU Space Programme? Comments on the EUSPA’s mandate against other EU agencies	143
Katarzyna Michałowska – EU sanctions in the aviation and space sectors adopts following Russia’s aggression against Ukraine	156
Michał Matusiak – Artemis Accords – a new era of space law or an initiative of the world’s superpower?	168
Zuzanna Buszman – Sustainability of space traffic management – addressing the issue of orbital debris in the context of space liability	185
Bogusław Wontor – The European Interparliamentary Space Conference – the way to influence the space law and policies in Poland	200