

Table of Contents

ARTICLES

ARTUR KAMCZYCKI

The Kabbalistic Alphabet of Libeskind: The Motif of Letter-shaped Windows in the Design of the Jewish Museum in Berlin / 9

JAN NOWICKI

A Church for the Polish People: On the Contest for the Parochial Church in the Warsaw District of Praga / 43

AGATA WÓJCIK

Edward Trojanowski: The Search for Style in Early 20th-century Furniture Design in Poland / 69

JAKUB FREJTAG

Turning “Polish Boxes into German Houses”: On the Transformations of Architecture in Poland during the Second World War as Exemplified by the Changing Design of the Zajdensznir Tenement in Radom / 99

ADAM PRZYWARA

Rubble Warsaw, 1945–1946: Urban Landscaping and Architectural Remains / 123

MAREK CZAPELSKI

The Memory of Opulence and the Freedom of a Pauper: The Construction-material Discourse in the Polish Construction Industry in the Period of the Thaw / 141

WOJCIECH M. GŁOWACKI

Modernity and Compromise: The Church of St. Michael the Archangel in Warsaw and its Designer Władysław Pieńkowski / 171

JACEK FRIEDRICH

Modernist Architecture in Illustrative Art for Children and Teenagers in the People’s Republic of Poland / 201

PIOTR KORDUBA

Above Standard: Villas Designed by Jan Dudek-Kornecki as a Contribution to the Study of the Housing Culture of Affluent Residents of Poznań in the Last Decades of the People's Republic of Poland / 235

REVIEWS

GOERD PESCHKEN

Mariusz Karpowicz, Andrzej Schlüter. Rzeźbiarz królów [Andreas Schlüter. Bildhauer der Könige], Warszawa, 2014 / 261