

ĆWICZENIE 1 Ponumeruj nazwy dyscyplin sportowych.

- | | |
|-----------------------|----------------------|
| archery | the high jump |
| basketball | horse riding |
| bodybuilding | ice hockey |
| boxing | karate |
| cycling | rowing |
| downhill skiing | running |
| fencing | ski jumping |
| figure skating | tennis |
| football | volleyball |
| gymnastics | weight lifting |

bout crew equalizer lap penalty spot periods pole position punches regatta time trial

1. SAILING: Australia's Michael Finney takes bronze in the Olympic Laser Class

2. FORMULA 1: The Brazilian Ferrari driver gave his fans the perfect result by winning from with the newly-crowned world champion close behind in second place.

3. BOXING: "The greatest twelve rounds of boxing ever?" asked Hopkins. "That's how I'd love to see this fight go. Both of us come out throwing until somebody drops."

4. FOOTBALL: In the 22nd minute the visitors were still in the lead by one goal when Carlos shot into the lower left corner of the net scoring a(n)

5. FOOTBALL: Two goals from Nicolas Pepper, the second from the, rescued a point for Manchester City.

6. CYCLING: Vuelta a Espana leader Roberto Gallas is expected to extend his advantage when the race heads uphill for a 29.5 kilometres individual

7. MOTORBIKES: Suzuki rider Yuki Tamada seemed to be the most seriously hurt in the crash on the first of the GP race in Toronto.

8. ICE HOCKEY: The Americans led 1-0 after two but the Finns scored four times in the third to produce a smashing victory.

9. ROWING: Hungary have lost the silver medals they won in the women's quadruple sculls after their member failed a dope test.

10. WRESTLING: The powerful 24-year-old Romanian secured the title after only three minutes of the winning by a score of 12-1.