

TABLE OF CONTENTS

From the Editors	7
Dorota Babilas From Britain's Most Unloved Queen to the Favourite? Film Representations of Queen Anne	11
Ana Clara Birrento The Possible Worlds of Oliphant and Eliot in Miss Marjoribanks and Middlemarch	21
Rebecca W. Boylan Saving Face: Respecting Nature's Inversions in Thomas Hardy's A Pair of Blue Eyes	31
Grażyna Bystydzińska "In religion all roads have their obstacles". Loss and Gain by John Henry Newman as a Conversion Narrative	41
Paul Goring "I saw the Man, that saw the Man, that said he saw this wondrous Sight": Mediating the Spectacle of George III's Coronation in the Newspapers	53
Michael Hollington Dickens the Vagabond and the Tradition of Nightwalking	65
Sophia C. Jochem "We must marry 'em": Marriages and Endings in Charles Dickens's Dombey and Son	79
Joanna Kokot The "(Un)fair Play" Method in Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes Tales	89

Marta Komsta

Progress and/as Utopia in James Hume Nisbet's The Great Secret: A Tale of To-morrow 103

Catherine Maxwell

Cultivating the Imagination: Plants and Flowers in Later Victorian Poetry 113

Monika Mazurek

Reviving the Anglican Confession in the Victorian Novel 139

Magdalena Pypeć

Dickens Writes Trauma: Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder in The Mystery of Edwin Drood 149

Dominic Rainsford

1827: Real, Fictional, and Mythic Time in The Pickwick Papers 165

Katarzyna Strzyżowska

Political Plotters or Puppets? The Role of Women at the Court of Queen Anne 179

Urszula Terentowicz-Fotyga

The Semiotics of the Gothic Country House in Jane Austen's Northanger Abbey 189

Przemysław Uściński

Figures of Hypocrisy: Pity and Poverty in Charles Dickens's Hard Times 201